

BUSINESS TODAY

May 2015

Community Job Fair
May 28 at SHSU The Woodlands

NEW SERVICES & DEVELOPMENT

Milner and Agresti of Mercedes-Benz of The Woodlands have met with the executive leadership teams at the Waldorf-Astoria, the Ritz-Carlton, Virgin Air, Apple Computer, and Zappos.com to create a Mercedes-Benz of The Woodlands facility that will truly excel. Milner plans to create a service-minded employee culture that serves The Woodlands through participation with non-profits that support the local community.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Byron W. Ellis, managing director, Ellis & Ellis, a division of United Capital Financial Advisers, recently spoke to high school boys from The Woodlands' National Charity Roundtable organization covering the topic of money management and check-book balancing in his presentation entitled "Seven Things You Can Do To Be A Millionaire."

Art Outlet hosts a local Artist! Sande Larson, local ceramist, is displaying her work at Art Outlet. Sande has developed unique and beautiful glazes and colors. She can also create custom pieces. artoutletwoodlands.com

Have a legal question? The Woodlands Bar Association's volunteer attorneys are on the line at 281-645-6344 on the first Monday of every month from 5 to 8 p.m. to provide general legal information and information about legal resources to Montgomery County residents. This free public service is a project of The Woodlands Bar Association in conjunction with the Montgomery County United Way. Callers' identities as well as the identities of the volunteer lawyers will remain anonymous. Next event - June 1.

Kindergarteners at St. Anthony of Padua Catholic School have been watching the nation's record breaking weather and decided to make their own snow. By mixing baking soda and conditioner, the class was able to create "fake" snow.

Precinct 1 Commissioner Mike Meador informs a crowd in Willis about the merits of the 2015 Road Bond. For more information or to learn how community members can assist in promoting awareness of the election, call Keep Montgomery County Moving at 888-936-3997 or email info@KeepMontgomeryCountyMoving.com

The students in Oak Ridge Christian Academy's Early Learning Academy got a surprise visit from the South County Fire Department as part of their transportation unit. "The children have been learning about different kinds of transportation – and how they are used in our everyday lives," said headmaster Jess Larson. The South County Fire Department visited the kids so they could see and touch what they have been learning.

"Market Street Photo Booth" experienced its busiest Gala, Prom & Social Season in and around The Woodlands, including at outdoor events and Festivals. "We are thankful for our repeat clients who confidentially recommend us through word-of-mouth advertising. Exceeding client expectations is our standard operating procedure." said owner Adreana Betti.

EVENTS / SERIES

Explore new adventures with Discovery College at Lone Star College. Through Discovery College, children have a unique opportunity to develop skills and learn new ones in areas such as robotics, theatre and dance, geology, photography, and electronics. Students will also have the chance to discover STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math)-based camp experiences. One-week camps begin each Monday, June 15 – 25 and July 6 – 16. For more information go to LoneStar.edu/DiscoveryCollege

GIVING BACK

RE/MAX The Woodlands & Spring is now officially a 2015 office partner of Move For Hunger. RE/MAX The Woodlands & Spring offers full-service marketing and listing for both buyers and sellers throughout Montgomery and Harris counties. The support of RE/MAX The Woodlands & Spring allows Move For Hunger to continue the fight against hunger and spread awareness of the growing hunger problem in Texas and across the United States.

Kirby's Steakhouse has teamed up with PTSD Foundation of America and Camp Hope to help bring awareness to the men and women that have Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) from serving, and protecting our country. Kirby's Steakhouse in The Woodlands will be donating a portion of proceeds from select menu items, and cocktails to the charity through June 30.

Mr. Rooter Plumbing is hosting their 2nd Annual bi-annual pet food drive through June 30 to raise awareness for the Montgomery County Animal Shelter and animal rescue. Mr. Rooter Plumbing donated more than 2 tons of dog and cat food in 2014 and wants to donate more than 3 tons of food in 2015! Contact Natalie Saikowski at 281-413-6266 for additional details.

Want to be in Business Briefs?

Want the business community to stay up-to-date with what is happening with your business? The Business Briefs section is a great place to do that. Every month, we feature two full pages of Business Briefs in Business Today devoted to our member's press releases.

Chamber Members may submit a complimentary press release for consideration to be included in an upcoming issue of Business Today. Email your Business Brief to media@woodlandschamber.org.

Other resources:

- If you wish to purchase an ad, contact Sheila Greaver; V.P. Sales at 281.363.8108 or Sheila.Greaver@woodlandschamber.org
- Chamber members are welcome to post events that are open to the public to our General Calendar through The Chamber's website. www.woodlandschamber.org and to The Chamber's Facebook page. Search "The Woodlands Area Chamber of Commerce on Facebook."